

Santanu Mukherjee

Santanu Mukherjee is an Advocate at the Supreme Court of India, a Commercial Mediator accredited with IIAM and founder of Ex Lege Chambers (ELC) in New Delhi. Santanu is into practice of commercial law and specialises in Intellectual Property Rights, Technology laws and International Trade (WTO). He is regularly engaged in transactional matters, commercial mediation, litigation and regulatory, policy advisory.

With more than 20 years' experience, earlier he had been Partner and Head of International Trade and Policy Practice at Luthra and Luthra Law Offices and Senior Attorney Legal & Government Affairs for South Asia with global technology leader, Qualcomm. He had also worked on global policy advocacy issues at South Centre, Geneva, Switzerland and as a Research Fellow at the Max Planck Institute for IP & Competition Law in Munich, Germany.

Santanu holds Bachelor of Laws degree from Calcutta University and Masters in International Law & Economics from the World Trade Institute, Bern University, Switzerland. He read Corporate, Commercial laws as a British Chevening scholar at the University of Law, York, UK. He was a visiting lawyer at the Littleton Chambers, Inner Temple Bar, London and also interned at the World Trade Organisation, Geneva.

He is a member of the Supreme Court Bar Association (SCBA) and the International Bar Association (IBA) and a founding member of the Indian National Bar Association (INBA). He sits on national executive committees of different industry bodies and speaks regularly at national and international forums. Passionate about social work and legal education, Santanu is member of the Core Committee of Dr. S.P. Mookerjee Research Foundation and regularly gives seminars and judges Moots in leading law schools.